GENERAL JIMENEZ RELEASED.
Declared He Was Arrested Without Orders From Havana.

HAVANA, Aug. 21.—It is asserted that the arrest of General Juan Jimenez Jimenez, the aspirant to the presidency of Santo Domingo, who was captured on board a steamer at Cienfuegos just as the steamer was about leaving that port, was not caused by orders from Havana, but was effected through the orders of General James H. Wilson, governor of the department of Matanzas and Santa Clara, immediately upon learning of the arrest of General Jimenez. The general was taken to the city of Havana, where he was held in custody. It is said that the general was released after a short time, and that he was allowed to return to his home in Santo Domingo.

COURTMARTIAL JUGGLING LAW.

Labor's Ex-Secretary Points Out Violations—Courtmarshal Stick to the Authority of the Borden, on Which Charge Dreyfus Was Remanded.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 21.—Mr. Leon Bureau of Paris, formerly private secretary to M. Labori, is in the city, a guest of Dr. Adrienne Monod, French vice consul.

He said that the present trial of Dreyfus will result in his acquittal. If a verdict of guilty is returned, the court of cassation, the higher French authority will at once set aside and order another court-martial and so on until he is acquitted.

The court of cassation knows that French law is being juggled by this military court and there are two grounds for avoiding mention of Colonel Schneider's name, made a few remarks, refusing, in behalf of the government, to accept responsibility for Major Guignot's indiscretion.

The most interesting portion of the proceedings was the last hour, when Guignot, Plagiat, Billot and Dreyfus were on their feet in a series of confrontations, a move which, however, had dramatic elements and which produced much emotion in court and occasioned French unexpected outbursts of pent-up feelings. The prisoner spoke several times with an indignation which rang sincere.

The confrontations were on side issues which did not raise questions of fundamental importance and cannot be said to have had much effect either way, so far as the testimony itself is concerned.

RIOTERS IN A CHURCH.
Wrecked the Inside of a Structure in Paris—Other Rioting on the Streets.

PARIS, Aug. 21.—In response to an appeal of the journals Le Peuple and La Petite Republique groups of anarchists and socialists gathered in the Place de la Republique. Rioting occurred. Shots were fired and M. Guignot, commander of police, was twice stabbed with a knife.

This threw the police into momentary confusion. The mob reassured and ran toward the Place de la Nation. The police, reinforced by a squad that had been held in reserve, made another attempt to stem the current and fresh force fighting occurred, three constables being wounded. Faure and d'Hort, the leaders, jumped into a passing street car, but later were arrested.

LABORER IS ANXIOUS TO CRUSH MERCIER.

The Latter Says That Dreyfus Is Sure of Condemnation, Which Will Place Most Frenchmen.

RENNES, France, Aug. 21.—General Mercier, who was minister of war when Captain Dreyfus was condemned and who is in the present trial is the virtual prosecutor, was called upon by a correspondent, who invited him to make a statement of the position of the anti-Dreyfusards.

Although unable to receive the correspondent in person, General Mercier sent his oldest son to convey the following expression of his views:

"General Mercier considers it useless to attempt to convert foreign opinion regarding the Dreyfus question, but he will recognize that the mass of the French nation, who will receive the news of the conviction of Dreyfus as joyful tidings, is not composed of fools, and that the majority of the French people will applaud the condemnation, it will be because it is just and merited."

The correspondent then called upon Maître Labori.

M. Labori was taking the air in the garden. He had been suffering severely from insomnia and was feverish and excited. The wound itself had not made the progress the doctors hoped for, although there has been no danger.

In view of his general condition, his medical advisers opposed his going to court today as he had desired.

Tomorrow or Wednesday, therefore, will more probably see his reappearance in court.

M. Labori is intensely anxious to return to court, even if he has to be carried there in an ambulance. He is dissatisfied with M. Demange's conduct in the case thus far, and on his return he intends to have General Mercier and the other generals back upon the witness stand. After reading their evidence he is confident of his ability to crush Mercier, and he expects to use the Schneider and Panizzardi telegram also to confound Mercier.

The stage was occupied Saturday successively by three enemies of Dreyfus—Major Guignot, General De Bousdres and General Gouze—who devoted themselves to rearguing what they had previously said in evidence against the prisoner, who followed them with characteristic composure; but when the moment came for him to reply the prisoner delivered one of those brief utterances of indignation which have had such a powerful effect upon his hearers.

The telegram of denial as to the authenticity of a certain letter sent by Colonel Schneider, the Austrian military attaché, to the figure, was introduced by Major Guignot.

Major Guignot evidently, however, committed an indiscretion in dragging in Colonel Schneider's name, which caused a sensation in court. The judges began to lean their heads together and look serious. Then Major Carrière, the government commissary, rose and, with a praiseworthy absence of his usual barnstorming gestures and carefully avoiding mention of Colonel Schneider's name, made a few remarks, refusing, in behalf of the government, to accept responsibility for Major Guignot's indiscretion.
